2nd Annual Orval Huffman Baseball Invitational – Saturday, May 21, 2016

Summary of day: BNL plays Northview in first-round action. Tanner McBride settles in on the mound after the 2nd inning, only giving up 1 hit in the last 5 frames; however, the early Knights' attack defeat the Stars 6-2 as our offense leaves 9 stranded base-runners. The 2nd game between Mooresville and Pike is no contest as Mooresville easily defeats Pike 9-0 by capitalizing on several Pike errors. The consolation game between BNL and Pike is an uphill battle as BNL answers to tie the game twice through 4 frames. Then in the 5th, a key hit by Brody Tanksley to take the lead, and a key catch by Ben Barker in the 6th inning to strand 2 Pike base-runners is enough to salvage the win 3-2. The Championship game between Northview and Mooresville proves to be a battle. Through 5 innings of play, the Knights are up 1-0 and secure the win with 2 more insurance runs in the bottom of the 6th to quiet the Pioneers 3-0.

Question from last issue:

Who was Columbus East?

Did you know?

Tanner McBride has been HBP 11 times this season.
